If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
- 14) the defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon;
- 15) the defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information; and
- 16) the defendant shall submit his or her person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, effects, computer, electronic communications devices, and any data storage devices or media, to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any federal probation officer, or any other law enforcement officer from whom the Probation Office has requested assistance, with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant. Any items seized may be removed to the Probation Office or to the office of their designee for a more thorough examination.

DEFENDANT: Jeffrey Charles Burfeindt
CASE NUMBER: DNYN110CR000320-002

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall serve six (6) months in home detention, commencing on a date and under conditions to be set by the probation officer. Location and/or monitoring technology may be used to monitor the defendant's compliance. If such a system is used the defendant shall pay all costs associated with the use of this system according to his or her ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.
2. The defendant shall not file in any court, federal, state or municipal clerk's office, or any public agency any document indicating the defendant or anyone else holds a lien, encumbrance, civil or criminal claim, civil or criminal judgment, or entitlement to relief against any person or any entity unless the defendant has first received the permission of the United States District Court for the Northern District of New York or his United States Probation Officer.
3. The defendant shall not use or possess any computer or any other device with online capabilities, at any location, except at his or her place of employment, unless the defendant participates in the Computer Restriction and Monitoring Program. The defendant shall permit the United States Probation Office to conduct periodic, unannounced examinations of any computer equipment the defendant uses or possesses, limited to all hardware and software related to online use (e.g., use of the World Wide Web, e-mail, instant messaging, etc.). These examinations may include retrieval and copying of data related to online use, and the viewing of pictures and movies which may be potential violations of the terms and conditions of supervised release from this computer equipment including any internal or external peripherals, internet-capable devices, and data storage media. This computer equipment may be removed to the Probation Office or to the office of their designee for a more thorough examination. The Probation Office may use and/or install any hardware or software system that is needed to monitor the defendant's computer use, subject to the limitations described above.
4. The defendant shall apply all monies he receives from any income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
5. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program which shall include medical, psychological, or psychiatric evaluation and may include outpatient and/or inpatient treatment. The program shall be approved by the United States Probation Office.
6. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of any evaluation, testing, treatment and/or monitoring services rendered in an amount to be determined by the probation officer based on the defendant's ability to pay and the availability of third party payments.

DEFENDANT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF APPLICABLE CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

The conditions of supervision have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.

- E ☐ Payment in equal _____ (e.g., weekly, monthly, quarterly) installments of $ _____ over a period of _____ (e.g., months or years), to commence _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision; or
- F ☐ Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or
- G ☒ Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:

Restitution shall be paid at the minimum rate of twenty-five (25) percent of your earnings while incarcerated and, after release, at the minimum rate of ten (10) percent of your gross earnings or $250 a month, whichever is greater.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to Lawrence K. Baerman, Clerk, U.S. District Court, Federal Bldg., P.O. Box 7367, 100 S. Clinton Street, Syracuse, N.Y. 13261-7367, unless otherwise directed by the court, the probation officer, or the United States attorney. If a victim cannot be located, the restitution paid to the Clerk of the Court for that victim shall be sent to the Treasury, to be retrieved if and when the victim is located.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
